Use Word 'City' in Address and You'll Regret It

I was halfway through addressing discount checks this week-end when I discovered the envelopes for local mail followed the street or post office box number with the word 'City,' a habit of many years. But it was a habit I had to break.

I tore up the offending envelopes and wrote: "Hope, Ark. 71801."

If it seems absurd to you I am the bearer of some grim news which will change your addressing system, too.

One of Hope's best known citizens told me last week he mailed a check to another Hope man and ended the envelope address with "City." The man got the check six days later. Here's the explanation:

Although mailed from one Hope address to another the letter went to Texarkana for sorting. In Texarkana the address "City" proved undeliverable. So the Postal Service sent the letter on to Dallas. Being undeliverable there also the letter was finally returned to Hope and delivered—after six days.

That's what the word "City" will do for you.

So make sure your in-town mail hereafter is addressed "Hope, Ark. 71801."

The report on long distance mail isn't good, either.

A. L. Page, Hope bottler, reports he mailed a check to Cincinnati, Ohio, June 16—but Cincinnati didn't receive it until July 6.

The editor never gets in the last word—the above I can't top.

If today's column begins to sound like The Complaint Department I've one more report that may save you some money.

Moving the monthly discount checks in a hurry I woke up the other day to the fact I had been paying the last figure on the Arkia Gas Co. bill. This was a mistake.

The last figure includes the 10 per cent penalty for late payment.

When paying on time you should write your check for the first figure—not the last.

Convention kicks off tonight

McGovern's hopes riding on crucial floor showdown

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Battling Democrats are preparing to launch their 1972 nominating convention under strict security tonight with Sen. George McGovern's hopes for a first-ballot presidential nomination riding on the bitter California credentials showdown.

Bolstered by two favorable parliamentary rulings and indications of support from delegates uncommitted in the presidential race itself, McGovern said he expects to win his fight for reinstatement of 151 California votes that were stripped by his political rivals on the Credentials Committee.

That could lift him to within 50 votes of a first-ballot triumph Wednesday night, according to The Associated Press tally of delegate strength. And such a decision might set off a rush by uncommitted delegates to get on what then would look like a winning bandwagon.

Backers of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, leading the fight to maintain the Credentials Committee decision that divided the 151 California votes among McGovern's rivals in the state's June 6 primary, were a bit more cautious in discussing the floor fight that will highlight tonight's possibly marathon session.

"I think the chances are fair to good we will be seated," said state Sen. Mervyn Dymally of Los Angeles, a Humphrey leader.

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, meanwhile, pondered his potentially decisive course on the California credentials case.

Some aides saw the division of the delegation as the only possible way to revive his faded nomination hopes, while a number of his backers were reported leaning to support of the McGovern position.

Supporters of George C. Wallace generally backed Humphrey's side. The crippled Alabama governor told Tennessee backers he expects to "play a large part" in the convention.

An array of 23 credentials challenges from 15 states is expected to keep tonight's kickoff convention session, scheduled to open at 7:30 p.m. EDT, going through much of the night.

Besides the California dispute, the most important is the appeal by Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley from the Credentials Committee decision to replace him and 58 allies with a competing group dominated by McGovern backers.

Other important credentials cases come from Alabama and

Logjam awaits Demos tonight at convention

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Democrats waded into a log jam of credentials scraps tonight at their national convention amid indications compromises may saw through roadblocks in smaller states but not in the red-hot California battle.

The unprecedented convention consideration of 23 challenges to delegates in 15 states marks the final stage of a reform struggle within the party that requires participation of more women, youths and minorities.

It appears the boggling volume of credentials fights — which some said would last more than a full day if settled on the floor — might be reduced by compromises in advance of the convention's opening bell.

But the night's biggest confrontation is expected on the challenge to California's winner-take-all-primary rules where both Sens. George McGovern and Hubert H. Humphrey said they are not in a compromising mood.

McGovern won the 271 California delegates in the primary but the Credentials Committee later decided they should be allocated on the basis of popular votes, paring the South Dakota senator's total to 120. The other 151 are split among the other Democratic presidential contenders — most of them going to Humphrey, who is leading the fight to uphold the Credentials Committee decision.

Many party leaders say a bitter floor fight over California might splinter the party and hand President Nixon another four years in office.

Delegates 'marching to the beat of different drummer'

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The carpet is down, the bunting is up, and Larry O'Brien's gavel is about to bring the Democratic saints and sinners marching in again.

To the beat, it would seem, of a lot of different drummers. Delegates in dungarees and Dashikis. From Southern mansions and Washington, D.C., welfare homes. With buttons that say "Let George Do It" and mean McGovern in one case and Wallace in another.

Indeed, the sight to be beheld by the television millions starting tonight is said to be the most different—if not decorous—parley of the Party of the People since its first quadrennial call by political revolutionaries in 1832.

Since when, for example, has it been so difficult to tell so many of the delegates from so many of the demonstrators? Who recalls the last time blacks were proportionately overrepresented?

Or when the spouses who were left at home or consigned to the hotel with the kiddies were, in large numbers, men?

Or who could have foreseen that old pro Hubert Humphrey would pin his hopes to an argument founded on party reforms, as is the case tonight when the convention takes up the issue of George McGovern's claim to 271 delegates from California?

Still, there is much of the same old song in this experience, even though 90 per cent of the delegates are convention freshmen and can't sing "Happy Days are Here Again" without a cue card.

The giant hall stands bathed, like most things here that don't move and some that do, in carnival-like splashes of red, white and blue.

Elaborate portraits of party mentionables peer down on the delegates, as if no man dare commit an act of heresy beneath the brooding presence of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson or John F. Kennedy. Lyndon B. Johnson's likeness was stolen or misplaced, but they got another and hung it in the rear.

The hall, too, reflects the taint of tragedies past and trouble anticipated. It, along with most of the nearby hotels, is guarded by both machines and men, civilian and military, some visible, some not. The police are ordered to search all bags and other personal items.

General is killed in Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — A lone north Vietnamese artillery shell killed an American general promoted only 12 days ago and three other U.S. officers shortly after they landed at An Loc for an inspection, the U.S. Command announced today. Two U.S. officers in the party were wounded.

Brig. Gen. Richard Tallman, 47, a native of Honesdale, Pa., was the eighth American general killed in the Vietnam War and the first in two years. A Navy admiral was killed two months ago in a helicopter crash in the Tonkin Gulf.

Wallace is directing fight in wheelchair

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — George C. Wallace, directing his convention forces from a wheelchair, is making person-to-person appeals to uncommitted and even unfriendly delegates while joining other candidates in a stop-McGovern coalition.

The Alabama governor has sent out invitations to all state delegations, offering chartered-bus transportation if they need it to reach the hotel where he has a plush, 20th-floor suite.

Wallace aides kept their silence on the identity of one of two candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination who have visited the governor. The name, they say, will surface today.

Charles Snider, Wallace's campaign manager, told newsmen that another candidate in addition to Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington has paid a visit, but declined to name him.

Wallace's invitation to delegates opened his tightly guarded headquarters to newsmen for the first time when the Tennessee delegation responded. "We're going to have a good number of delegates," Wallace told visitors in his richly appointed, gold-carpeted reception room.

"We're going to play a large part in the outcome of the convention as far as the nominee is concerned."

Wallace said the campaign he is waging already has "picked up some additional delegates in the uncommitted ranks."

Jackson, talking with newsmen after his meeting with the governor, said he and Wallace discussed only one campaign issue—national defense. He said they agreed the Democrats cannot win in November without a strong defense posture.

Mrs. Pruden named '72 GOP delegate

Mrs. Jerri Pruden of Hope was one of eight persons elected by committees at the congressional district level to attend next month's Republican National Convention in Miami Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Pruden is a candidate for the District 20 state representative post.

The state Republican Convention will be held in Little Rock Saturday to consider approval of the eight delegates and also to select 10 additional delegates.

The eight already selected include two from each district. They were elected Saturday at meetings in Jonesboro, Camden, Fort Smith, and Little Rock.

Other delegates chosen were Keith Rutledge of Batesville, Mrs. Tony Libhart of Jonesboro, Sam Sparks of Little Rock, Otis Richmond Sr. of Pine Bluff, Mrs. Phyllis Kincannon of North Little Rock, Mrs. Joe Mills of Clarksville and C.W. McWhorter of Rogers.

All Around Town

The meeting of those interested in building a slaughterhouse in Hope, which was scheduled for Tuesday night, July 11, at Red River Vo-Tech has been postponed until the planning committee has had time to secure additional information.

The Hempstead County Cattlemen's Association will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night, July 11, at 8:00, in Perry's Restaurant, Perrytown.

Cecil M. Bittle, Assistant Director in charge of the SW Branch Experiment Station, will be the guest speaker.

Glen Ford, president, urges all members to attend this meeting.

The annual razorback bus trip will be to Ft. Worth to the TCU game on Oct. 7. Money for game tickets must be sent to Ladies Speciality Shop between now and July 15. . . Bus fare will be $12.

The Hope Optimist Club is chartering their membership with the Optimist International with a breakfast at 6:15 a.m. tomorrow at the Town and Country. . . This is the final opportunity for persons to become a charter member of this club.

TED KENNEDY

Kennedy is firm on stand

HYANNISPORT, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, keeping a firm grip on his neutrality stand in the choice of the Democratic presidential candidate, spent the weekend sailing on his new 54-foot yacht and planned more of the same as delegates struggled over credentials and the nomination.

While Kennedy is remaining aloof from the convention, flatly rejecting any idea of accepting a nomination for vice president and repeating his stand that he has no desire to run for president this year, reports persist from Miami Beach that bring the Massachusetts lawmaker's name into nomination possibilities.

To affirm his position as a noncandidate, Kennedy last Spring ordered his name off the list of delegate slates and passed up the certainty that he could have been chairman of the Massachusetts delegation without challenge.

Mills will 'make known' his wishes

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Sen. Wilbur Mills, a delegate to the Democratic National Convention, here Sunday that "it will be made known" how favorite son Wilbur Mills feels about convention issues.

Mills did not attend the reception.

But Charles Ward of Conway, a delegate who also is national committeeman from Arkansas and directed part of Mills' presidential primary campaign, told the caucus that Mills' views on the issues would be made known to the delegation.

"I hope we can have some solidarity," Ward said.

One of the issues scheduled for a vote today is what action will be taken on the Credentials Committee decision to strip from Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota 151 of the California delegates he won in that state's winner-take-all primary.

IRA cease-fire is ended

BELFAST (AP) — The Irish Republican Army's Provisional wing broke off its cease-fire Sunday night after 13 days and renewed its guerrilla campaign. At least six persons were killed, and Northern Ireland teetered on the brink of civil war.

The Provisionals charge that British troops junked the cease-fire by attacking Roman Catholics in Belfast's Lenadon district. William Whitelaw, the British administrator for Northern Ireland, charged that the IRA "set up" the incident "to provide justification for resumption of terrorist activity." He said the troops were fired on first. Witnesses backed the claim.

Sean MacStiofain, chief of staff of the Provisionals, ordered his gunmen back to their bullet-and-bomb campaign with "utmost ferocity" to oust the British army.

Within 15 minutes, firing broke out all over Belfast. Gun battles raged in the Catholic Ballymurphy, Ardoyne and An-dersonstown sectors and the Protestant Springmartin area. A 100-pound bomb exploded in a car damaged offices downtown. Another bomb wrecked an all-night garage. Five bombs exploded within three minutes of each other near the Protestant warehouse section of Londonderry, the province's second largest city. Shooting erupted around the Bogside, part of the IRA-ruled "Free Derry" enclave in Londonderry.

Carloads of gunmen made hit-and-run attacks on army posts and ambushed patrols, wounding at least four soldiers. Six civilians, including a Catholic priest giving the last rites to another victim, were killed around the Ballymurphy zone of Belfast. The dead also included a 13-year-old girl.

The British army claimed one gunman was killed and seven others wounded. But the IRA as usual spirited all their casualties away.

The truce was shattered when a column of 2,000 Catholics marched on the Lenadon housing project in Belfast to force resettlement there of 16 Catholic families bombed out of their homes in a Protestant area.

Squads of the militant Ulster Defense Association and other Protestants blocked the marchers and two trucks loaded with the furniture of the displaced families. When troops moved in, the Catholics rained rocks, bottles, iron bars and gasoline bombs on them. Nine soldiers and half a dozen civilians were injured.

The soldiers fired rubber bullets, tear gas and water cannon at the rioters, then charged them. As the Catholics fell back, a sniper fired a single shot at the troops.

Within minutes, the troops came under heavy fire from snipers hiding in the apartment houses. As the battle widened, the Provisionals announced the end of the truce.

Security officials feared even bloodier religious fighting may be ahead. The Protestant UDA dug in behind barricades it threw up last week in defiance of the British army.

Muskie leaves door ajar on VP question

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie's advisers have left slightly ajar a door to a possible second run for the vice presidency in his efforts to mediate between feuding Democrats.

Muskie's long consideration of his role in the challenges to the seating of the California and Illinois delegations has led him, he said Sunday, to try to act as mediator.

One possible compromise that may help tell the party, key aides said, might be Muskie's willingness to accept the No. 2 spot on the ticket.

Although Muskie remains publicly reluctant about a casting as somebody else's running mate, his aides said he might be persuaded by the argument that his presence on the ticket means the difference between victory and defeat.

Others close to Muskie say it would take "an awfully hard selling job" to convince him to go that route again, as he did behind Minnesota Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey in 1968.

Muskie was to meet today with the 250 or so delegates pledged to his own candidacy for the presidency. Some time after that, he was expected to announce his long-awaited decision on how he would stand on the crucial credentials' challenges to be taken up tonight on the convention floor.

Bible-quoting country lawyer has a 'big job'

JASPER, Ala. (AP) — Bob Wilson is a Bible-quoting country lawyer who has been uncommonly successful in persuading juries to accept his arguments in court.

At Miami Beach this week, the 50-year-old Alabama state senator will make "the biggest jury speech" of his career in support of "probably the biggest case I've ever presented."

He'll try to persuade the more than 3,000 delegates at the Democratic National Convention to give Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace the presidential nomination.

The Jasper attorney, one of the most flamboyant orators in the state legislature, will make the speech to put Wallace's name before the convention.

"I'm thrilled to death," he said. "When I was asked if I would make the nominating speech, I said I'd like it more than anything else in the world."

Wilson, who is vice chairman of the pro-Wallace Alabama delegation, is well aware it will be almost impossible to sell Wallace to the convention.

But there is still the chance that the governor, if unsuccessful at Miami Beach, will try a third party campaign as he did in 1968. And television coverage of the convention will give Wilson an audience of uncounted millions of voters.

"Whoever is elected president this year is going to have to do it with the popular vote, not the delegate vote," he says.

Wilson says he's writing his speech "but I might just shoot from the hip," a technique he acquired long ago in the courtroom.

"I'm going to use a lot of the Wallace philosophy."

Wilson doesn't have to be briefed too much in detail on what the governor stands for. As an administration leader in the Senate, the two-term legislator knows it by heart.

As chairman of the budget writing Senate Finance Committee, he has the task of carrying out Wallace's fiscal policies when the legislature is in session. And as a worker in the third party presidential bid, he knows how the governor feels about national affairs.

McGovern's hopes

Georgia.

The bitterness surrounding the California dispute erupted Sunday in a meeting of the convention's Rules Committee. McGovern supporters accused Humphrey backers of a power play to rewrite rules on the number of votes needed to sustain credentials challenges.

Meanwhile, compromise efforts were being sought on some of the lesser credentials disputes.

Gov. Marvin Mandel of Maryland said after a series of meetings Sunday said he thought perhaps 10 or 11 credentials cases could be resolved without floor fights.

Daley's forces, however, were adamant on the Illinois case, and both sides said compromise was impossible on California.

Sen. Harrison A. Williams Jr. of New Jersey, another original Muskie backer, said McGovern offers the best hope for party unity and added "it would be very damaging for the party" if he lost the nomination because of the California credentials case.

But as the opening day of the convention dawned, the main subject was George Stanley McGovern, and whether he could be stopped from the presidential nomination that seemed so remote just a few months ago.

Watermelon eaten in protest

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Yuppies gobbled up watermelon that had made up a caricature of President Nixon's face at Flamingo Park as part of the nondelegates' final protests prior to today's opening gavel of the Democratic National Convention.

Elsewhere Sunday, some 200 backers of Students for a Democratic Society held a protest march at the swank Playboy Plaza Hotel where major financial contributors to the Democratic party held a convention kickoff dinner.

Senior citizens from Miami Beach's vast retirement community were to be honored guests at the picnic sponsored by the Youth International Party, but few showed up. "We wouldn't take your food," said one silver-haired resident when offered melon, organic bread and vegetable stew from the Yippie table.

Bridge winners

At the Hope Country Club on the 4th of July bridge was played in the afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Brack Scenck. Daisies were seen in the entrance hall, and in the room where four tables of players assembled. A red, white and blue arrangement was used with American flags.

The high scorer for the games was Mrs. Bill Routon, and Mrs. Thomas Hays was second. A guest, Mrs. Frank Davis of Fulton, Miss., was the winner of the game prize.

Sensing probes help cook perfect steaks

A new set of temperature sensing "doneness" probes are now available to help backyard and kitchen chefs prepare perfect steaks without cutting or unnecessarily puncturing the meat. Each set of Redi-Steks contains four probes, one each for rare, medium rare, medium, and medium well done steaks.

Hermetically sealed for lifetime reliable service, Redi-Steks contain an inert and harmless temperature sensing gas. As steaks cook, the gas is warmed and expands. When steaks are done the expanding gas causes the flip-top to spring open with an audible click to reveal the word "Redi".

To use, simply sear one side of the steak, then turn and insert the correct Redi-Stek sensing probe. Several steaks can be cooked to the same doneness by grouping them together on the grill or oven broiler and inserting the sensing unit into the center steak.

skirt featured Chantilly lace accented with seed pearls. She wore a chapel-length veil bordered with lace motifs and attached to a beaded lace headpiece. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Mrs. Billy G. Brown of Muscle Shoals, Ala., served her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Hargrove Black and Mrs. Olive Watson, both of Tuscaloosa. The attendants wore formal orchid Schiffliembroidered organza and taffeta gowns accented with Venice lace trim and ruffles. Each carried a bouquet of purple, lavender and white flowers.

Dr. W. D. Raburn of Tuscaloosa was best man. Ushers were Don Pressley of Muscle Shoals, brother of the bride, Wayne Causey of Tuscaloosa, and David Mitchell of Haleyville, Ala.

Mrs. Pressley chose for her daughter's wedding a turquoise chiffon and lace ensemble complemented with a white orchid. Mrs. Matthews, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in blue crepe and chiffon with a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church.

After a wedding trip to Miami Beach, Fla., the couple is now at home in Huntsville.

Albright-Coop engagement told

Mr. and Mrs. William Alvis Albright of Sherrill announce the engagement of their daughter, Martha Kathryn, to Jack Edgar Coop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Merlin Coop of Hope.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Altheimer High School and attended William Woods College in Fulton, Mo. She was graduated from Henderson State College in Arkadelphia with a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education. She is presently teaching at Fullerton School in Little Rock. Miss Albright's grandparents are Mrs. Henry Rush Barrett of Sherrill and the late Mr. Barrett and the late Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Alexander Albright of England. Her great-grandfather, Captain John Moody Barrett, settled the town of Sherrill and its development.

The groom-elect is a graduate of Hope High School. He attended Arkansas State University in Jonesboro and the University of Arkansas, where he majored in marketing and was a member of the Commerce Club. Mr. Coop is owner of Coop's Cricket Ranch in Hope. His grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Augustus Ficus of Wynne and the late Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Griffin Earl Coop of Hope.

The couple will be married at the First United Methodist Church of Sherrill on September 30.

Champagne reception fetes couple

At a champagne reception at the Capital Club in Little Rock Wednesday, July 5, the engagement of Mary Kathryn "Kitten" Albright and Jack Coop was formally announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.A. "Chick" Albright of Sherrill.

Among the 60 guests were the parents of the future bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Coop of Hope, and the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Rush Barrett, as well as guests from Wynne, Texarkana and Pine Bluff.

The serving table which featured a champagne fountain, was centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums, tangerine carnations and baby's breath flanked by silver candelabra with tangerine tapers.

Don't Rain on Her Parade

Dear Helen:
I tell my wife about her shortcomings for her own good. Now I find she has written to you trying to get national sympathy.

I want you to know that I operate in tune with Frank Clark's words: "Criticism, like rain, should be gentle enough to nourish a man's growth without destroying his roots."—CONSTRUCTIVE CRITIC

Dear Critic:
Either you come on like a cloudburst or your wife has very shallow roots. Try compliments.—H.

Dear Helen:
I laughed last year when I read that a psychiatrist believes TV sports are a substitute for sex—that is, men become less "lovely" the more involved they are in spectator sports.

Last year, you see, I was a newlywed, and television came in a poor second, except for the Rose Bowl Game.

Nowadays I'm beginning to believe the shrink was right. I tried kissing my husband Sunday afternoon and he growled, "Get out of the way, you're blocking my view." On game days, forget it!

What's baseball got that I haven't got?—STRIKING OUT Dear S.O.:

Willie McCovey...Vida Blue...Willie Mays...

Look little wife, you aren't cancelled—just postponed.—H. Dear Helen:

I am bugged (literally) by a disc jockey at a radio station in San Francisco. Two years ago I wrote him a fan letter and, ever since, he has said things on his program that make me know he can hear everything in my apartment. Like when I dropped a glass and he said, "Now I want complete quiet for this record."

He not only has sneaked in and bugged my room, but he's wired it for sound. I hear music and talking that doesn't come from my radio, and then there's something like insects buzzing. He doesn't leave me alone for a minute. He's on the air about four hours a day, and when he isn't saying terrible things to me, then he's piping them in from some other place at all hours of the day and night.

I have written to the FCC but they say they can't handle personal problems. The district attorney and police will do nothing for me, and even my grown children won't listen—pretend not to hear what's all around me.

It's some kind of plot to drive me crazy. Please believe me, and tell me what to do to get rid of this announcer.—BUGGED TO DEATH

Dear Bugged:
First: turn off your radio and leave it off! (Or at least beam it AWAY from San Francisco!) Second: See a doctor or a dentist. There's a possibility that one of your dental fillings has become a radio signal detector and is picking up sounds from a nearby station. Unexplained voices and music can push the hearer into all sorts of weird suspicions—and you've latched on to an innocent announcer probably because you hear him so many hours a day he has become an obsession with you.

So much for my logical play. If you are still "bugged", psychiatric counseling is your best help.—H.

This column is dedicated to family living so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Write to

Cards beat Yankees 9-8

Two close games were played in the Doctor's League games last Thursday night at Key Field.

The Cards had to score in the last inning to beat the Yankees by a score of 9 to 8. Smith was the winning pitcher having 12 strike-outs to his credit and allowing three hits. Sutton was charged with the loss.

In a game that lasted 2 hours and 15 minutes, the Braves finally edged across a run to win 9 to 8 over the Dodgers. Leim and Phillips toed the mound for the winners while Morrison and McHenry shared mound duty for the Dodgers.

The last game of the night between the Cubs & Giants had to be postponed due to the Braves-Dodgers game lasting so long. It will be played Thursday, July 20.

Thursday night, July 13, will bring to a close the 1972 Doctor's League regularly scheduled games. At 6 p.m. Cubs vs Braves - 7:15 Giants vs Cards - 8:30 - Yankees vs Dodgers.

Giants out-slug Captains; Travelers nip Cubs 2-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Booming bats propelled Amarillo and Memphis to inter-division triumphs Sunday in the Texas League.

The Amarillo Giants out-slugged the Shreveport Captains 12-5 and pulled within two games of West Division leader El Paso, whose Sun Dodgers bowed to the Memphis Blues 9-3.

On other fronts, the Alexandria Aces bested the San Antonio Brewers 7-2 and the Arkansas Travelers nipped the Midland Cubs 2-1 in the night's only close game.

Andy Rodriguez, who wound up with four runs batted in, belted a three-run homer as Amarillo scored six times in the first inning and outthrew Shreveport 15-12. The home club's Steve Ontiveras also drove in four tallies as he went four-for-five at the plate.

In El Paso, Memphis capitalized on five hits and two errors by the Sun Dodgers for five runs in the sixth frame. The Blues' Tom Hallums iced the cake with his seventh home run of the season in the eighth. Memphis collected an even dozen hits and El Paso 10.

Alexandria maintained its five-run margin over runnerup Memphis in the league's East Division Bob Johnston of the Aces threw a six-hitter at San Antonio while his teammates were pounding out 12 base knocks against three pitchers for the losers. Johnston fanned six batters and walked three, and saw a throwing error rob him of a shutout in the ninth inning.

Bob Forsch, the Arkansas moundman, hit a broken-bat single in the seventh inning, was sacrificed to second base and scored on Dave Kent's single in the seventh frame for what proved the winning run at Midland. Forsch, whose record now is 7-3, scattered seven hits, the same number the Travelers managed off two Midland hurlers.

Tonight's schedule takes Arkansas to El Paso, Alexandria to Amarillo and Shreveport to San Antonio, while Memphis and Midland have open dates.

Kathy Ahern wins golf classic by one stroke

Everybody but Kathy Ahern counted her out of the $32,000 George Washington Golf Classic.

"I didn't feel that badly because I played pretty well," she recalled Sunday after shooting a six-under-par 67 to win the 54-hole George Washington by one stroke over Sandra Haynie.

"I had only two bad holes that first day, double bogeys on the eighth and ninth," she said. "You can't let things like that get you down. I've learned to keep swinging."

Miss Ahern kept swinging over the 6,150-yard Hidden Springs Golf Club course. She swung for a five-under par 68 on Saturday and jumped from 49th to a tie for eighth.

On Sunday she swung for seven birdies and only one bogey for a three-round total of six-under-par 213, and the $4,500 first prize.

The final round started with Miss Haynie, Sandra Palmer and Joann Prentice tied for the lead at four-under-par 142. Miss Ahern was at 146. She made the turn in 35, with two birdies and a bogey, then rolled in five consecutive birdie puts.

Miss Haynie shot a one-under-par 72 over the regulation 36-37—73 course, and wound up at 214. Miss Palmer carded a par 73 and was another stroke back at 215. Gerda Boykin also played par on the final round for a 216, while Miss Prentice shot 75 and slipped into a four-way tie for fifth at 217 with Judy Kimball, Gloria Ehret, and Kathy Cornelius.

LANDS LUNKER—David Brown of Hope landed a 6-lb. bass on Beard's Bluff Landing on Millwood Lake last week. Brown used an artificial purple worm to catch the big bass.

Hope loses to Texarkana

Texarkana defeated the Hope Junior American Legion by a score of 2 to 0 at Texarkana Friday night.

Hope got eight hits, but could never seem to get a man across homeplate.

Texarkana had seven hits picking up one run in the second inning and one in the fourth.

The winning pitcher for Texarkana was Plante giving up eight hits, two walks, and striking out nine.

Rowland was the losing pitcher for Hope giving up seven hits, two walks, and striking out eight.

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Veterans Jim Ryun, Frank Shorter, Willie Davenport, Jay Silvester and George Young and youngsters Ray Robinson, Larry Burton, Steve Smith and Dwight Stones are "on the boat" hoping to blend their exuberance and cool to produce another great American Olympic team.

Ten days of competition, surviving 100-degree heat and rain, have sorted out the athletes; the top three finishers in each event at the men's Olympic trials here advance one step—the biggest step—into the 20th Olympiad beginning Aug. 31 at Munich, Germany.

For Ryun, the world record-holder, it's a third crack at the Olympic gold medal which he missed in 1964 and 1968. His stunning 51.5-second last lap in the 1,500-meter dash here capped his comeback.

"I feel I have a better and faster race inside me," said the jubilant 25-year-old from Kansas who hopes to become the first American since 1908 to win the metric mile.

Shorter ran first in both the 10,000 and the marathon. The 24-year-old former AAU titlist will be traveling back to his birthplace. It was also 1908 the last time an American won the marathon.

Steve Prefontaine proved his races aren't all against the clock as he defeated the 34-year-old Young handily in American record time in the first meeting of the two aces.

Hope wins pair Sunday

The Hope Junior American Legion moved their record to 13 wins and 4 losses by defeating Texarkana in both games of a double-header here Sunday. Hope took the first game by a score of 7 to 1 and the second by 2 to 0.

In the first game, Hope got off eight hits with Tim White leading with two.

Texarkana had four hits with Hubbard leading with two.

The losing pitcher for Texarkana was Hubbard going up eight hits, three walks, and striking out one.

Downs was the winning pitcher for Hope with four strike outs, giving up four hits and three walks.

Texarkana got off to a slow start and never could get rolling during the second game. They had two hits throughout the game, Plante and Hubbard each getting a single.

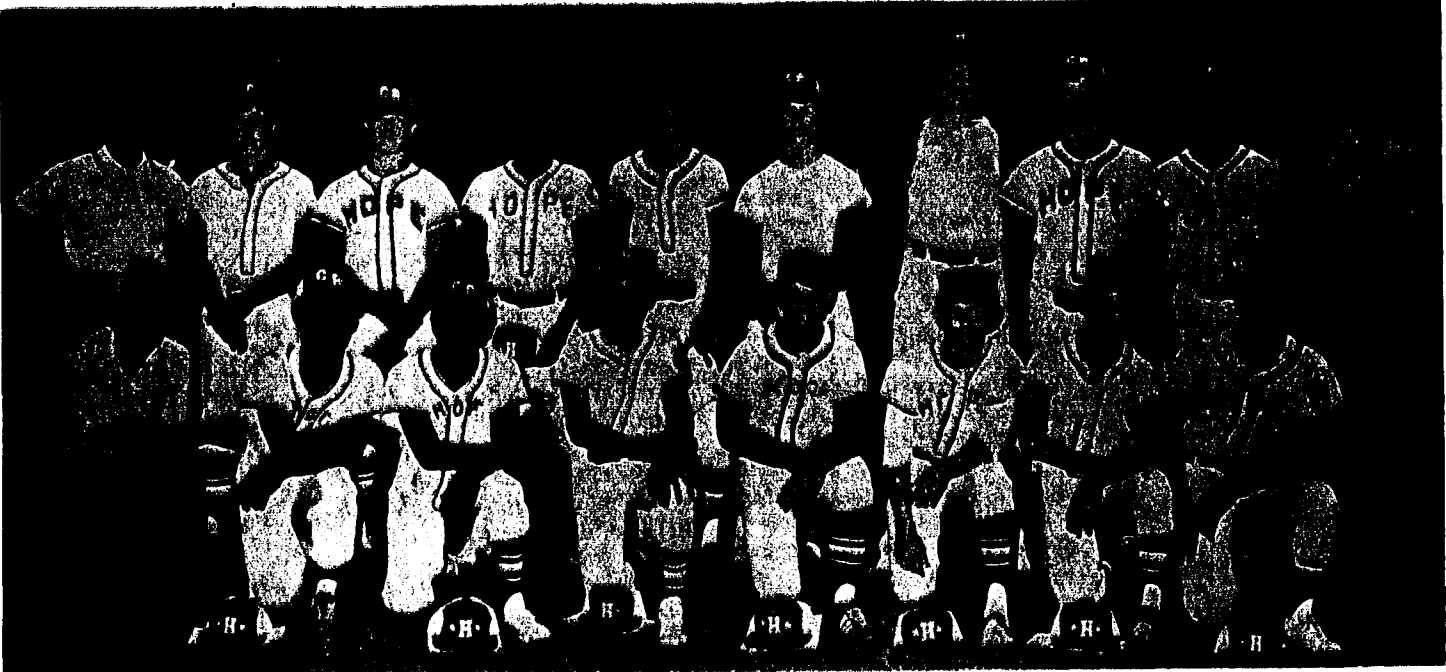

Hope had four hits with Ingram, Finch, Rowland, and Rhodes each getting singles. Hope scored two runs with Ingram coming home in the fourth.

The losing pitcher, Bridges, gave up four hits, two walks, and struck out one.

The winning pitcher for Hope was Rice who gave up two walks, and struck out seven.

Hope Junior American Legion team now holds a 13 and 4 record. They are sponsored by Young American Homes and coached by Larry Walker.

Their next game will be Friday, July 14, at 7:00 p.m. against Fordyce, at Fordyce.

Babe Ruth All-Stars

Sponsors and team members of the Hope Babe Ruth League—15-year-old division—selected Friday night to the All-Star team are: Citizens—Jim Rhodes, James Staggers, Clay O'Steen. Alternate, Gary Banks. Corn Belt—Mike McCorkle, Artis Perry, Larry Morton, Mike Powell, Lonnie Sharp, James Robinson, and Robin Lee.

First National—Larry Johnson. Alternate, Dave Bramlett. Blevins—Mark Spears and John Yates. Anderson-Frazier—Mike Butler, Terry Smith, and Billy Ogburn. Merchants—Mike Hobson. Coaches—A. J. Rhodes, Cecil O'Steen, and Bobby Gullett.

Ryun will take 3rd crack at Olympic gold medal

Pre's time of 13:22.8 is the fastest in the world this year and wipes out his own 13:29.8.

Young cracked 13:30 for a lifetime best and moves to Munich with an American record fourth Olympic berth for a distance runner.

The sprint picture is dotted with young, excited kids lacking international experience. Eddie Hart, Robinson and Robert Taylor will run the 100-meter dash in Germany.

The 400-meter tandem of Wayne Collett, John Smith and Vince Matthews looks about as solid as a wall. An American sweep in the event is a possibility because there isn't a runner in the world who has cracked 45.7 this year. Collett ran 44.1, Smith 44.3 and Matthews 44.9 in advancing here.

Davenport ran second, Tom Hill first and Rod Milburn third in the 110-meter high hurdle final to qualify for the U.S. team. That trio is as good as America has sent in years.

Burton, a Purdue sophomore in his first year of track, joins Chuck Smith and Larry Black on a swift 200 combo.

Smith became the world's fifth 18-foot pole vaulter.

Blevins defeats Merchants

In Babe Ruth League action Friday at Legion Field Blevins won over Merchants by a score of 4 to 0.

Mark Spears was the pitcher for the winners allowing seven hits and striking out two.

Tim Walton and David Cobb were the pitchers for the losers.

The leading hitter was Leville Scott, Danny Gibson, and Tim Gregory with singles. For Merchants, Mike Hobson got a double, David Sison, and Keith Cummings had singles.

District Tournament play will be held July 14-24. Teams from Hope, Malvern, Texarkana, Nashville, Arkadelphia, and Sheridan will be in this tournament. Come out and support our All-Stars.

The standings are:

Citizens	14	1
Corn Belt	11	3
First National	7	6
Blevins	6	8
Anderson-Frazier	3	11
Merchants	2	12

Smith grabs tennis crown

By NOEL HUGHES
Associated Press Sports Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Stan Smith, the gentle giant of U.S. tennis, won the treasured Wimbledon singles crown and couldn't quite believe it.

Smith, the 6-foot-4 American Army corporal from Sea Pines, S.C., raised his arms in relief and triumph after beating mercurial Romanian star Ilie Nastase, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3, 4-6, 7-5 in a thrilling final on Wimbledon's center court Sunday.

"There were times out there when I thought he was going to win," admitted Smith.

Perhaps Smith's calm disposition saw him through the breath-taking final which was given an added psychological twist by being postponed 24 hours through rain.

Nastase kept his well-known fiery temper in check most of the time. But he was like a simmering volcano that was liable to blow its top at any moment.

"I couldn't sleep last night and the postponement made me more nervous," said Nastase. "I didn't eat any breakfast."

Stan didn't seem to have pre-match nerves at all.

Pirates romp over Braves 7-4

Associated Press Sports Writer

A professional hitter understandably appreciates professional hitting and so Hank Aaron stands in awe of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Aaron ripped the 657th home run of his career—57 short of Babe Ruth's record—Sunday, but it wasn't nearly enough to overcome homers by Willie Stargell, Bob Robertson, Manny Sanguillen and Al Oliver that carried the Pirates to a 7-4 romp over the Atlanta Braves.

The victory, combined with Los Angeles' 2-0 triumph over the New York Mets, left the Pirates with a four-game bulge over the Mets in the National League's East Division.

Elsewhere in the NL Sunday, Chicago swept a doubleheader from Cincinnati 5-0 and 10-5, Houston ripped St. Louis 12-8, San Francisco downed Montreal 5-4 and San Diego edged Philadelphia 5-4.

In the American League, Kansas City gained a twinbill sweep over Cleveland 6-4 and 8-5, New York outslugged Minnesota 9-6, Oakland topped Milwaukee 3-1, Texas topped Baltimore 3-2 in 10 innings, Chicago split a doubleheader with Detroit, winning 5-4 before losing 4-2, and California stopped Boston 3-0 on Nolan Ryan's one-hitter.

Pittsburgh's victory over Atlanta left the Pirates with a .280 team batting average—the best in baseball. It also left Aaron impressed.

"Pittsburgh's the best team I've seen since I've been in this game," said the Atlanta slugger, who reached the major leagues 18 years ago. "They've got two teams and no matter which one they put out, they run you to death."

On the bench are hitters like Vic Davalillo (.358), Gene Clines (.333), and Rennie Stennett (.289). The problem is finding room in the line-up for all the bats.

Stargell, Robertson and Oliver all jolted Denny McLain for their homers as the former American Leaguer was knocked out early. Sanguillen connected against reliever Cecil Upshaw.

Aaron and Oscar Brown homered for the Braves, who dropped three of four to the Pirates. Pittsburgh has won eight of its last 10 games.

The Mets managed just six hits against Claude Osteen as the Dodgers beat New York ace Tom Seaver.

Seaver allowed nine hits, three of them to rookie Lee Lacy, who scored the first Dodger run and drove in the second.

Three straight hits by Lacy, Bill Buckner and Willie Davis gave the Dodgers a run before a batter was retired in the first inning and Osteen made it stand up until Lacy's two-out ninth inning single gave LA its wrap-up run.

Chicago ripped Cincinnati twice, riding Ferguson Jenkins' shutout pitching to the first game victory and then out-slugging the Reds in the night-cap.

Mighty McLarens fall once again

GAINESVILLE, Ga. (AP) — The mighty McLarens have fallen once again in Can-Am road racing, and a new era may be dawning in this richest single series for sports cars.

Supersub George Follmer drove Roger Penske's exotic 12-cylinder turbocharged Porsche to an easy victory Sunday in the second Can-Am event of the season at Road Atlanta, near Gainesville.

En route to the winner's circle he passed the wrecked McLaren of perennial Can-Am champion Denis Hulme and the companion car of 1971 title holder Peter Revson, sitting in its pit with a sick engine.

"We're going to turn this series around," said a jubilant Penske, whose regular driver, Mark Donohue, won the Indianapolis 500 this year in his fourth try.

"No longer are the McLarens going to be considered automatic winners in Can-Am racing," he added.

Follmer, 39, of Arcadia, Calif., had replaced Donohue in the Porsche Friday after the three-time U.S. road racing champ injured a leg in a practice crash last Monday.

Donohue underwent surgery to repair the leg Saturday. He will be out of action for at least 13 weeks and Follmer appears to be his permanent replacement.

Wickliffe speaker at Rotary meeting

"The fact of change must be recognized before progress can be made," Rotarian Vernon Wickliffe told the Hope Rotary Club at its luncheon meeting Friday, July 7, at the Town and Country Restaurant.

The speaker said that the changes in Arkansas were very apparent to him when he returned after an absence of 19 years. Hope is in the midst of many changes which are easily recognized by all, and many more will come in the foreseeable future. The Rev. Wickliffe reminded his listeners that in a changing world, though, we still have a changeless Christ.

During a business meeting conducted by President Bob Roberts, the operating budget for the coming year was presented and approved. Visiting Rotarians were John Hege of Hollywood, Fla., and Jerry Keith of Taylor, Tex. Other visitors were Mrs. Warren Basye of Houston, Bob Willis and Tommy Crouch.

Guilty plea by terrorist

LOD, Israel (AP) — The Japanese terrorist who survived the Tel Aviv airport massacre pleaded guilty at the opening of his trial today, but the Israeli military court rejected the plea.

It also postponed final decision on a request by the defense that the terrorist, Kozo Okamoto, 24, be given a mental examination.

"I don't want an examination," the defendant shouted. The court's rejection of the plea means the prosecution will have to present its case.

Okamoto is accused along with two other Japanese in the murder of 26 persons at Lod Airport May 30. The two other Japanese also were killed, and 67 other persons were wounded in the machine-gun attack.

The tribunal later recessed to weigh the plea and the defense request for an examination by a panel of psychiatrists.

The prosecution will now try to prove its case beyond doubt.

The court deliberated for almost two hours before its president, Lt. Col. Abraham Frish, announced the decisions on the examination request and the guilty plea by Okamoto.

His chief lawyer, Max Kirtzman, said he did not contend Okamoto was now insane, "but he should have an examination to determine if he was sane at the time of the commission of the offense ..."

Testimony in playbook sale begins today

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — U.S. Atty. Gerald Gallinhouse said a federal grand jury here is to receive testimony today concerning an alleged attempt to sell pro football secrets to the New Orleans Saints.

Karl Sweetan, 29, former quarterback for the Saints and the Los Angeles Rams, and his cousin, Wayne Boswell, 31, both of Dallas, Tex., were released on $5,000 bonds Saturday on charges involving an allegedly stolen Rams' playbook.

Both were charged with interstate transportation of stolen property and fraud by wire.

They were arrested Friday after Saints coach J. D. Roberts notified federal authorities that he had been contacted about a proposed playbook sale offer.

Brewer wins Canadian Open

FORT ERIE, Ont. (AP) — "When you're destined to win, well, you are just going to win," Gay Brewer said after ending a five-year victory famine with a nerve-ringing triumph in the Canadian Open Golf Tournament Sunday.

The greying, 40-year-old veteran who last won in the 1967 Masters, blew a three-stroke lead and twice flirted with disaster before carding a final round 70 and a one-stroke victory at 273.

That was nine under par on the 6,751-yard Cherry Hill Golf Club course and just one in front of onrushing Dave Hill and rookie Sam Adams. The veteran Hill closed birdie-birdie for a 67 and Adams, a curly haired left hander from Boone, N.C., blazed home with the day's best round, a stunning 66. Veteran Phil Rodgers had a two-under-par 69 and was alone in fourth at 277. Lou Graham followed with a 70—278. Chi Chi Rodriguez and Canadian George Knudson had 67s and were tied at 279.

Lee Trevino, the 1971 champion, wasn't a factor after the first round. He had a final 70 and was tied at 282 with South African Gary Player. Arnold Palmer closed with a 72—285 before he, Player and Trevino set out for Scotland and next week's British Open.

Jack Nicklaus, already holder of the Masters and U.S. Open titles didn't compete in this national championship in order to get an early start on his preparations for the tournament in Muirfield, Scotland. He's gunning for an unprecedented one-year sweep of all the world's major titles.

Orioles upset, 3-2

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Earl Weaver was looking ahead today because if he looked back all he could see were four straight losses by his Baltimore Orioles to the lowly Texas Rangers.

"The next game is the big game and the real big game might be in October," the Oriole manager said after Texas beat the Orioles 3-2 in 10 innings Sunday night to complete their four-game sweep in Baltimore.

The Boston Red Sox, meanwhile, probably will be happy to see anything that looks like a good pitch to hit after California's Nolan Ryan struck out 16 and retired the last 26 batters in beating them 3-0 in a twilight game on the West Coast.

Baltimore went into the Texas series with a two-game lead over the Detroit Tigers in the American League East.

Tonight the Orioles open a series with Kansas City in a tie with Detroit, which lost to Chicago 5-4 and then came back to beat the White Sox 4-2.

In other AL action, the New York Yankees moved to within 3 1/2 games of the East lead by beating Minnesota 9-5; West leader Oakland topped Milwaukee 3-2 and Kansas City swept Cleveland 6-4 and 8-5.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs dominated Cincinnati 5-0 and 10-5, San Diego nipped Philadelphia 5-4, San Francisco took Montreal 5-1, Los Angeles shaded the New York Mets 2-0, Pittsburgh slugged Atlanta 7-4 and Houston blasted St. Louis 12-6.

Texas tied the Orioles Sunday when Joe Lovitto tripled home a run with two out in the eighth inning and then won it when Lovitto doubled home Toby Harrah who had opened the 10th with his third hit of the game. Brooks Robinson's sacrifice fly and Boog Powell's pinch single produced Baltimore's runs.

Ryan, a hard-throwing right-hander with an 11-5 record, gave up a game-opening walk to Tommy Harper, struck out the next man and then yielded a single to Carl Yastrzemski.

Yastrzemski was the last Boston baserunner as Ryan struck out nine men in the first three innings and set an American League record by fanning eight straight.

Oswald: "Al Sobel, chief tournament director of the American Contract Bridge League, was one of my old and very dear friends. Although he was a year older than I am, I remember when he first started to assist Lt. Gen. Gruenther in tournament direction. Then, when the general's increasing military responsibilities took him away from bridge, Al became the top director."

Jim: "I remember the first time I heard and saw him at a tournament. There will never be a director like him."

Oswald: "This is no reflection on the new breed of tournament directors. They all are extraordinarily competent, but not one of them will ever really take Sobel's place."

Jim: "He loved to play bridge. Here's a hand he played in Rio at the 1969 World's championships."

Oswald: "It was a preliminary game and, while the bidding by Al and his partner may not be elegant, they got to the right contract."

Jim: "Al was very proud of his play. He carefully called for a low diamond from dummy at trick one. He ruffed the second diamond, played ace-king and six of hearts to ruff in dummy. Then he ran trumps and eventually used dummy's ace of diamonds to discard his losing club."

Oswald: "Not too complicated, but if he had played the ace of diamonds at trick one he might have been set."

Hypertension is a symptom

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—Is hypertension and high blood pressure the same thing? Is it a symptom or a disease? How high is too high? What could be the consequences of carrying a reading of 200/105 untreated for several months?

Dear Reader—Yes, hypertension and high blood pressure are the same thing. Tension refers to pressure and hyper, of course, means increased, hence increased pressure or high blood pressure.

A single elevated blood pressure reading should not be considered as a disease. It is a symptom. Single office readings like this may often represent merely the apprehension of the patient about his medical examination. Before it is assumed that a person has true hypertension, a number of readings need to be taken on different occasions. Sometimes the patient's blood pressure will subside to normal levels after he is in the doctor's office for 30 minutes or an hour. Often doctors take the blood pressure at the beginning of the examination and at the end to find out if the patient's pressure has dropped.

As these remarks would suggest, elevated pressure is a symptom. Sometimes it's caused by a problem in circulation to the kidneys (these are rare cases). Some authorities have amassed a large number of cases that are associated with endocrine problems involving the adrenal glands that rest over the kidneys.

Many cases of elevated blood pressure will return to normal values if the person simply loses any excess body fat that he may have. For this reason many good heart specialists insist that patients with moderately elevated blood pressure should lose fat before taking medicine. I agree with this concept. This has an added bonus since most of the complications of high blood pressure, including strokes and heart attacks, are related to the fatty deposits in the arteries. These deposits are increased in the presence of persistently elevated blood pressure.

Weight reduction decreases the amount of blood fat and prevents fatty deposits in the arteries and helps to prevent the complications of high blood pressure. Women, during their childbearing years, are less prone to have fatty deposits in their arteries than men and usually tolerate elevated blood pressure better than men. There is no absolute level of normal for blood pressure but, in general, it shouldn't be more than 140/90 on repeated examinations over a period of time. There is some evidence to suggest that the lower the blood pressure the less likely there will be fatty deposits in the arteries and the less likely that strokes and heart attacks will occur.

I can't tell you what kind of problem will result from not treating a blood pressure of 200/105. It depends on what causes it and whether that's the persistent level of the blood pressure and the rest of the individual's medical status. I have frequently observed that with diet and adequate weight reduction many people develop normal pressure. Of course, if the person is already skinny, he'll have to use a different approach. In general, individuals who have elevated blood pressure would do well to at least cut down and preferably eliminate the use of added salt in their diet. This means not adding salt during cooking preparation and not adding salt at the table.

ALEX RICHMAN abandoned her classical piano training to invade the male world of rock music. Her new album, "Salty," indicates she's getting it together for a solid career.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Most methods used to create power also produce pollutants. A source of energy which is free of pollution but little used is geothermal power. The World Almanac notes. This power is tapped from the earth's interior heat to produce steam which spins electric generators.

Court rules against proposed amendments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court ruled today that two constitutional amendments proposed by the legislature in 1971 could not be placed on the November general election ballot.

One amendment would have set four-year terms for the state's constitutional officers and permitted the legislature to establish salaries for the constitutional officers and the other would have revised the legislative article in the state Constitution.

The unanimous opinion upheld a ruling by Chancellor Murray O. Reed in Pulaski Chancery Court. Reed made the decision in suits filed by Benny Rinke and Odell Kuykendall.

The suits said that the legislature had failed to comply with the part of the State Constitution that requires amendments to be entered in the legislative journals with the ayes and nays.

Gov. Dale Bumpers called the legislature into special session earlier this year, before the cases were brought to trial. One of the purposes set out in the call was to consider "appropriate resolutions" to correct the journal entries. The journal committees of both houses prepared supplements to the journals of the regular session "reflecting the full texts of the resolutions and inserted the journals as directed by the special session."

Reed ruled, however, that the failure of the regular legislative session to conform to the requirements "could not be cured by action of a subsequent special session" and that neither of the resolutions, even after being amended, were entered in the journal with the aye and nay votes.

The Supreme Court said it had studied the journal entries and "concluded that the trial court was correct in its finding that the journal, even after the attempted corrections, does not reflect the aye and nay votes on the two resolutions after amendment. Those defects are fatal to the resolutions."

Hope man, Tom Cox, aboard USS Gompers

Boatswain's Mate Third Class Thomas Cox Jr. of Hope has sailed over 8,000 miles since he has been assigned to the USS Samuel Gompers, a modern destroyer tender now operating in the Pacific. The Gompers left San Diego on Nov. 2 of last year and has already visited such diversified ports as Honolulu; Yokosuka, Japan; Subic Bay, Philippines; Hong Kong; and Kaohsiung, Taiwan. Cox, 23, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Cox Sr. of Hope.

Cox, a 1966 graduate of Hope High School, attended Henderson State College and Ouachita Baptist University from 1966 to 1969.

He enlisted in June of 1969 and got his recruit training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego, Calif. After "boot camp", he was ordered aboard the USS Roarke until January 1971. He reported aboard the Gompers of last year.

His duties aboard the Gompers include maintaining rigging, ground tackle, canvas articles, supervising operation and maintenance of ship's boats, supervising working and damage control parties, and working on the gun crew.

He is married to the former Miss Toni Beth Wheelus of El Dorado. He plans on returning to college for a degree in business.

The Gompers is manned by 35 officers and a crew of nearly 1,000. She is 645 feet long, 85 feet wide, 13 stories high, and has a displacement of 20,260 tons when fully loaded. She produces enough steam to heat a city of 10,000 people, enough fresh water for a city of 8,000 people and enough electrical power to light a city of 50,000 people. Her mission is to provide logistic support to destroyer-type ships, including destroyer escorts and nuclear powered guided missile frigates.

selection as Daniel Ellsberg and Anthony Russo go on trial today in the Pentagon Papers case.

U.S. District Court Judge William M. Byrne Jr. has barred attorneys from questioning potential jurors and says he will ask all questions himself—drawing from lists of queries submitted by attorneys for both defense and prosecution.

The defendants, Ellsberg, 41, and Russo, 35, charged in connection with the leak of top secret documents to news media, have protested the judge's decision. They claim it will limit attorneys from thoroughly screening potential jurors in court.

The judge has indicated he made the decision, an option of federal judges, in an effort to avoid lengthy questioning on subjects he considered irrelevant to the case.

The defense had hinted it would pursue in-depth questioning on potential jurors' attitudes toward the Vietnam war and other aspects of American history.

Byrne chided them at one point for submitting among their suggested questions: "Do you believe the Boston Tea Party was a justifiable act?" "Do you think Jesus Christ was justified in throwing out the money lenders?" and "Did law enforcement officers at Kent State use excessive force?"

"I fail to see how this is relevant to selecting a fair and impartial jury," Byrne said. Attorneys have the usual privilege of using challenges to remove from the potential jury panel any persons they feel shouldn't serve.

The trial of the two former government researchers who turned antiwar activists is expected to produce controversy and important legal precedents. The case is already on the books as the first prosecution in which men were charged with espionage for leaking secrets to a newspaper.

Conviction could result in a maximum sentence of 115 years in prison for Ellsberg and 35 years for Russo.

Ellsberg, a graying, intense one-time top war analyst, has accepted all responsibility for making public the massive study of American involvement in the Vietnam war, but Russo has admitted he had a role in helping to copy the documents.

However, neither Ellsberg nor Russo admits to breaking any laws. They say they released to the public material it was entitled to see.
